Foreword

As we look into the World, we see many new hopes and new dreams. We soon will leave Auburn High School. But we will leave with the realization that our school will be better able to meet its educational needs in the future. And so it should be with our lives. We as Seniors must continue to advance ourselves to meet the new responsibilities of the future.

We have published this Yearbook as a "looking glass." May all who "look" through its pages recall the smiles and tears—all the images of well known places and events at Auburn High School.

Dedication

You should know him, you'd like him
I know!
Because he's so sweet and understanding, we all love him so.
He's always ready, wherever you see him, with his cheerful smile,
Never to tired or too busy to pause and help us a while.
We deeply appreciate your interest, friendliness,
and understanding,
Which have contributed so largely to making our life
happy and contented thoughout our school days.
And though we may not show it at times, we're mighty grateful to you, MR. ROBERT BISHOP.

Dedication To Our Parents

It is with great sincerity and deep appreciation that we, the Seniors of Auburn High School, Class of 1962, hereby dedicate our annual to you, OUR PARENTS. Without your patient understanding and unshakeable support through these five years of high school, we could not have obtained our goal—graduation. For this and many other reasons too numerous to name, we the Seniors wish to express our thanks to you. Will you please accept this as an honor bestowed upon you by your children?

Class History

Our past five years in the halls of Auburn High School hold many wonderful memories; memories to recall with a smile for those times gone, never to return.

We entered Auburn High School in the fall of 1957-58 as lost and confused eighth graders. We had an enrollment of sixty-two students. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Janell Dobbins and Mr. Robert Leighton. Our main activity for this year was our class party held on the school lawn.

We returned to school life in September of 1958-59 as Freshmen. Our enrollment had decreased to fifty-three. This year we were divided into two groups. The girls had their homeroom in the Library with Mrs. Mildred Lucas and Mrs. Florence Meredith as their homeroom teachers. The boys were in the ninth grade homeroom with Mr. Reynolds as their homeroom teacher. Some of our classmates became members of the Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball teams. Some students became members of the F. H. A., F. F. A., Library Club, and Band. We were honored when one of our classmates, Gearld Bond, was elected to the S. C. A. Our officers for the year were President Sammy Chafin, Vice President Clara Yates, Secretary-Treasurer Janet Richardson, and Reporter Gerald Bond.

In 1959-60 we were greeted as Sophomores by our homeroom teacher, Mr. George Guilliams. Our enrollment had decreased to fifty-one. Several of our classmates became members of the Beta Club. Again we were honored to have one of our classmates, Janet Richardson elected to the S. C. A. Our class officers were President Sandra Ferrell, Vice President Sammy Chafin, Secretary Pearl Sames, Treasurer Judy Lester, and Reporter Louise Hall.

In 1960-61 we were welcomed as Juniors by our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Mary Alma Board. Our enrollment had decreased to thirty-seven. This was to be a year filled with the greatest events of our High School life except for that final event, graduation. We had two goals for this year: One was to receive our class rings, and the other was to give the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. Our first goal was reached in May when we received our class rings, a symbol of our school and class which we shall treasure always. Next came the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet which was held at Governor Tyler Hotel in Radford, Virginia. We had to work very hard and had many money making projects to have enough to present this Prom. But as the year ended we were able to achieve this our last goal of the year. Our Prom, with the theme, "Stairway to the Stars," was as perfect as we had dreamed it would be. We thought it was the best Prom ever.

When we once again entered the halls of Auburn High School in the fall of 1961-62, we had reached our final rank, that of Seniors. Our enrollment had decreased to thirty-six. Our officers for this year were President Sammy Chafin, Vice President Harold Naff, Secretary Michael Burroughs, Treasurer Pat Kirkner, Reporter Sandra Ferrell, and Chaplain Janet Richardson. Our sponsor was Mrs. Annamille Prillaman. Under her leadership we ended our high school activities. Again we were honored to have one of our classmates, Sammy Chafin, elected President of the S. C. A.

We the Senior Class of 1962, wish to thank our teachers and Mr. Reynolds, our principal, for the understanding and help they have given us throughout our five years at Auburn. We would also like to say good-bye and good luck to everyone else at Auburn.

Now we work for the "present." This is graduation, a climax to the past, a beginning to the future. As we look to the shadowy future we can look without fear for we have the love, experience and knowledge we have acquired from our dear old ALMA MATER.

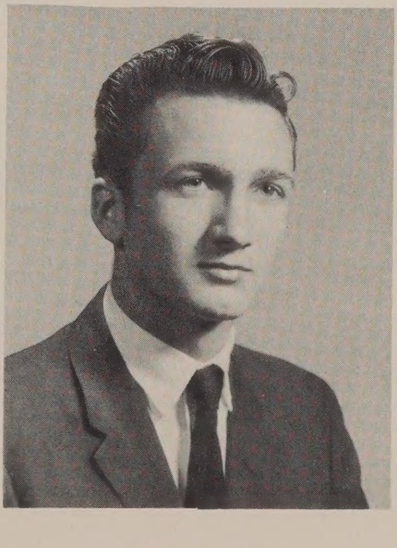
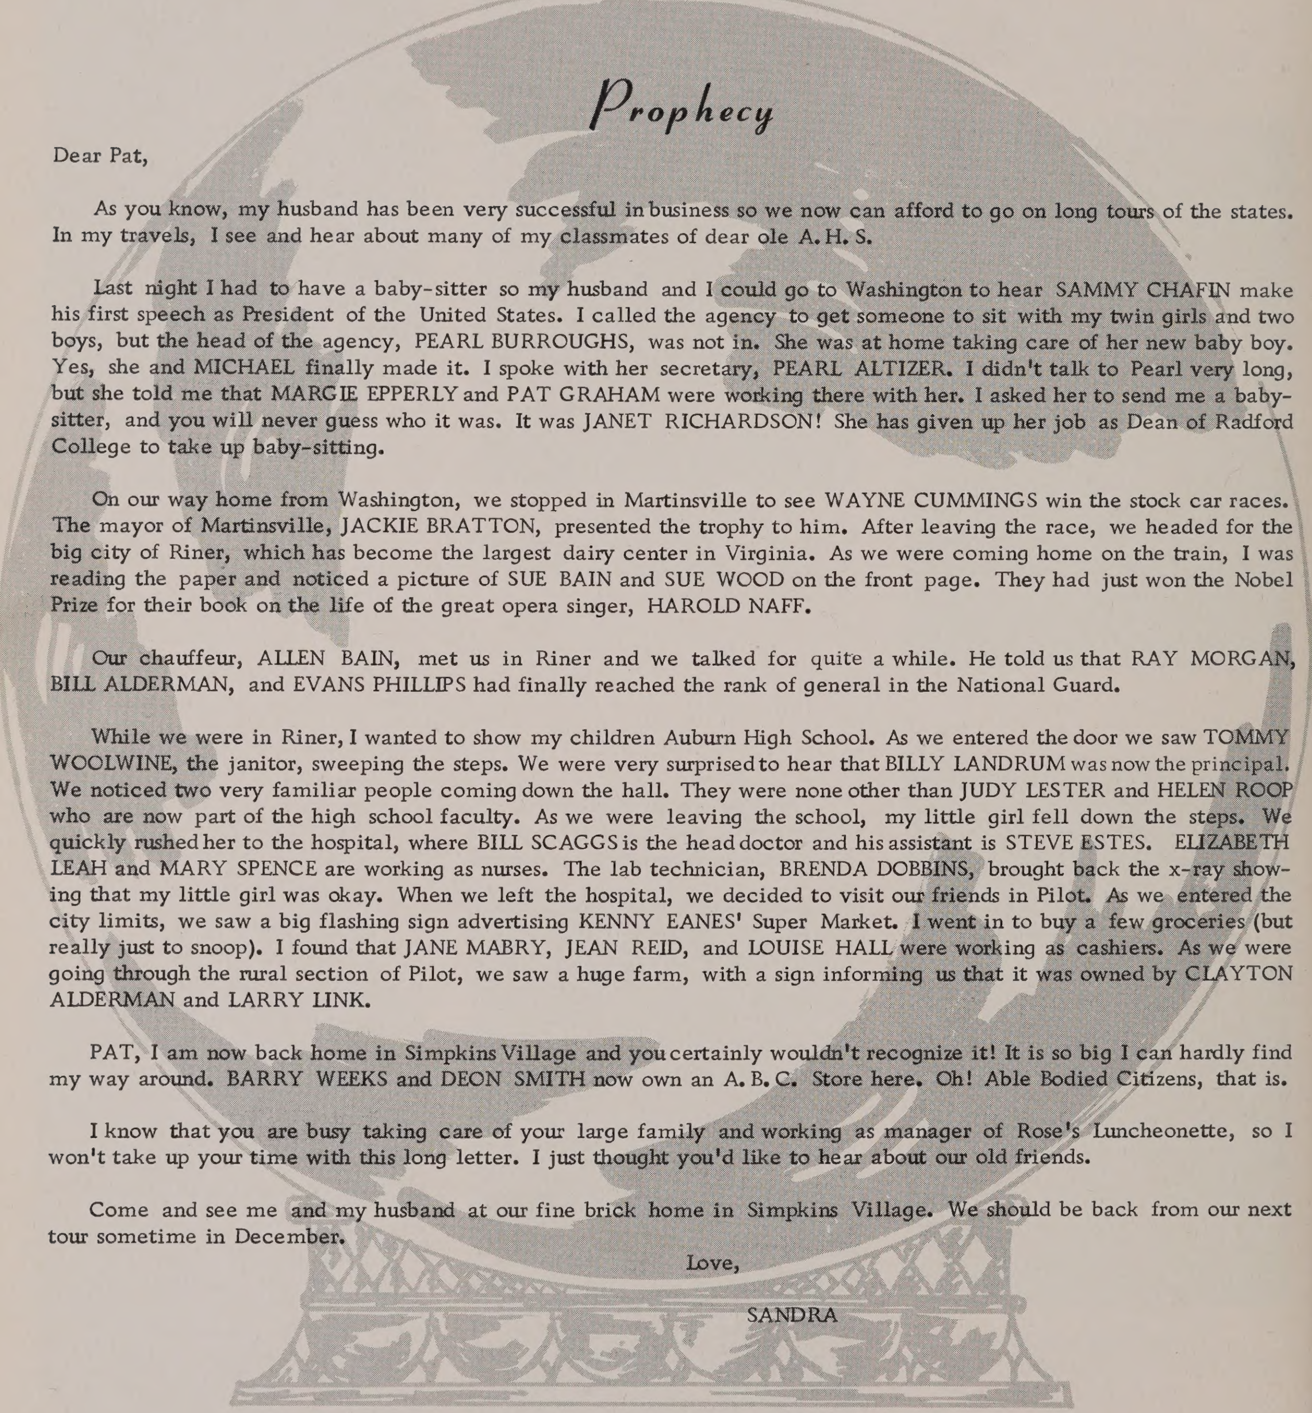
THOMAS ELLIS WOOLWINE
I have never seen a greater monster or miracle in the world than myself.





Prophecy

Dear Pat,

As you know, my husband has been very successful in business so we now can afford to go on long tours of the states. In my travels, I see and hear about many of my classmates of dear ole A. H. S.

Last night I had to have a baby-sitter so my husband and I could go to Washington to hear SAMMY CHAFIN make his first speech as President of the United States. I called the agency to get someone to sit with my twin girls and two boys, but the head of the agency, PEARL BURROUGHS, was not in. She was at home taking care of her new baby boy. Yes, she and MICHAEL finally made it. I spoke with her secretary, PEARL ALTIZER. I didn't talk to Pearl very long, but she told me that MARGIE EPPERLY and PAT GRAHAM were working there with her. I asked her to send me a baby-sitter, and you will never guess who it was. It was JANET RICHARDSON! She has given up her job as Dean of Radford College to take up baby-sitting.

On our way home from Washington, we stopped in Martinsville to see WAYNE CUMMINGS win the stock car races. The mayor of Martinsville, JACKIE BRATTON, presented the trophy to him. After leaving the race, we headed for the big city of Riner, which has become the largest dairy center in Virginia. As we were coming home on the train, I was reading the paper and noticed a picture of SUE BAIN and SUE WOOD on the front page. They had just won the Nobel Prize for their book on the life of the great opera singer, HAROLD NAFF.

Our chauffeur, ALLEN BAIN, met us in Riner and we talked for quite a while. He told us that RAY MORGAN, BILL ALDERMAN, and EVANS PHILLIPS had finally reached the rank of general in the National Guard.

While we were in Riner, I wanted to show my children Auburn High School. As we entered the door we saw TOMMY WOOLWINE, the janitor, sweeping the steps. We were very surprised to hear that BILLY LANDRUM was now the principal. We noticed two very familiar people coming down the hall. They were none other than JUDY LESTER and HELEN ROOP who are now part of the high school faculty. As we were leaving the school, my little girl fell down the steps. We quickly rushed her to the hospital, where BILL SCAGGS is the head doctor and his assistant is STEVE ESTES. ELIZABETH LEAH and MARY SPENCE are working as nurses. The lab technician, BRENDA DOBBINS, brought back the x-ray showing that my little girl was okay. When we left the hospital, we decided to visit our friends in Pilot. As we entered the city limits, we saw a big flashing sign advertising KENNY EANES' Super Market. I went in to buy a few groceries (but really just to snoop). I found that JANE MABRY, JEAN REID, and LOUISE HALL were working as cashiers. As we were going through the rural section of Pilot, we saw a huge farm, with a sign informing us that it was owned by CLAYTON ALDERMAN and LARRY LINK.

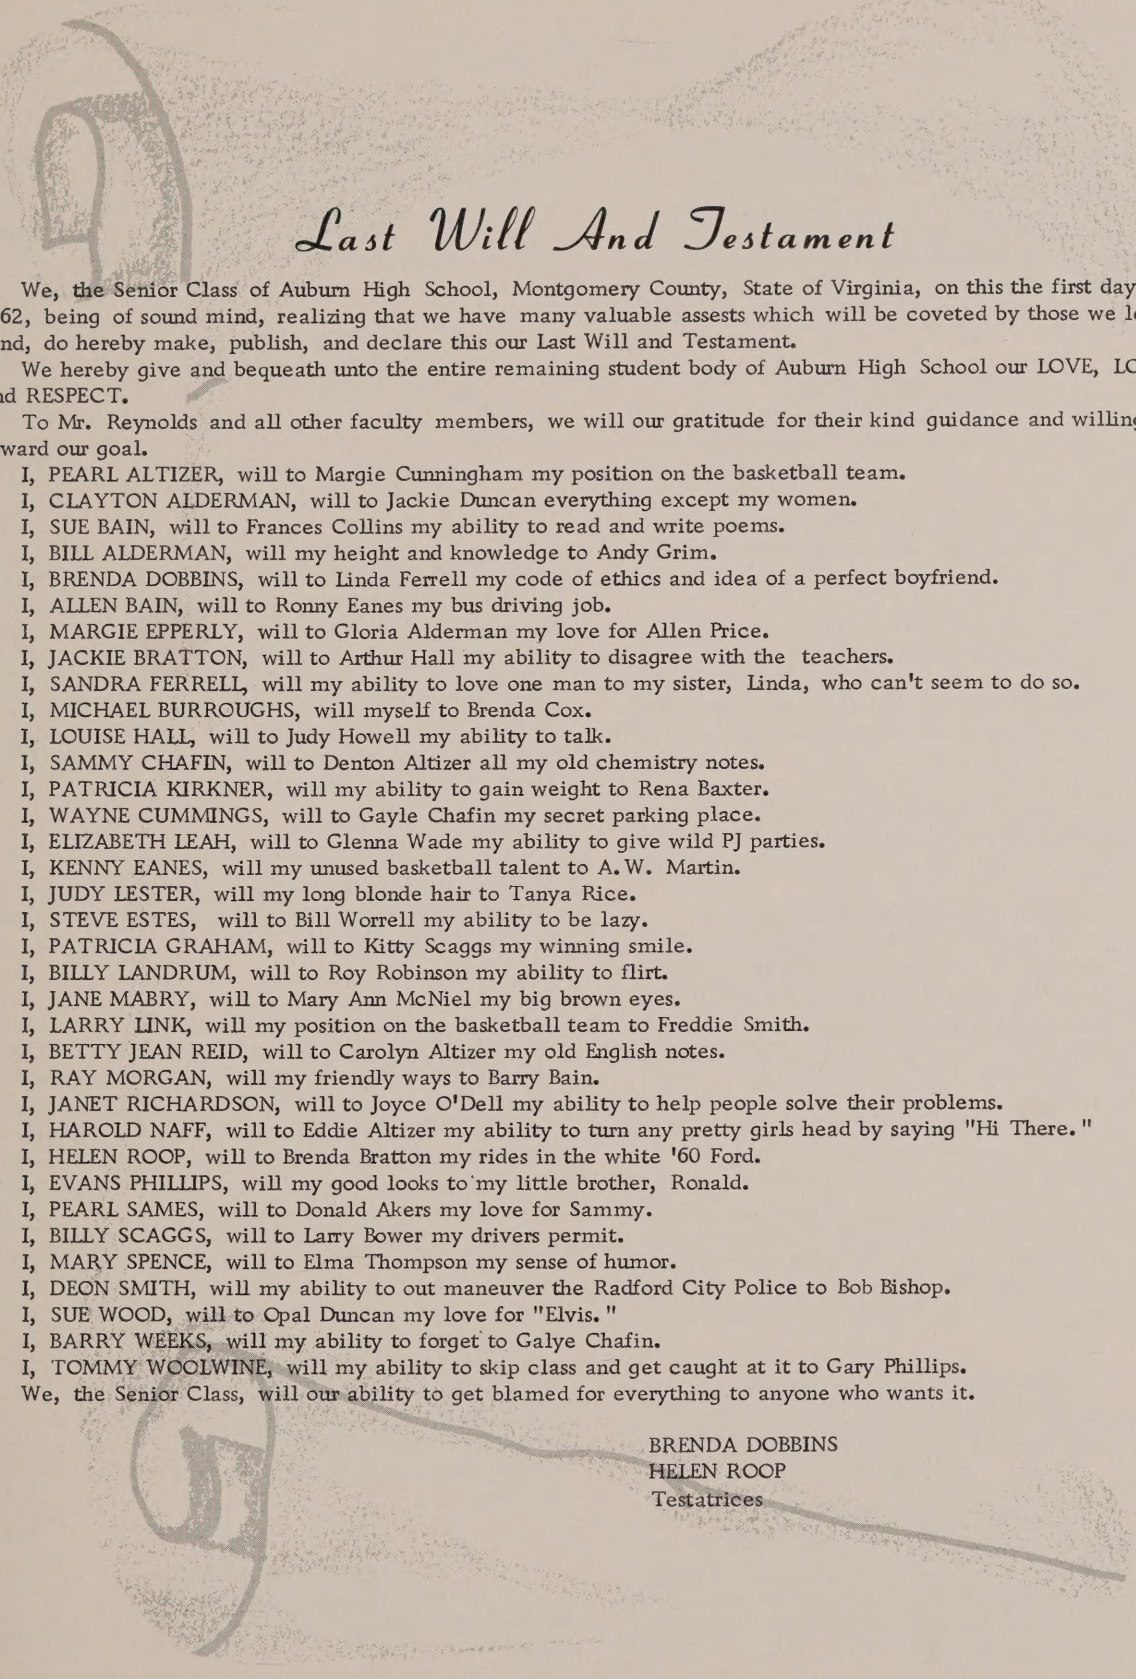
PAT, I am now back home in Simpkins Village and you certainly wouldn't recognize it! It is so big I can hardly find my way around. BARRY WEEKS and DEON SMITH now own an A. B. C. Store here. Oh! Able Bodied Citizens, that is.

I know that you are busy taking care of your large family and working as manager of Rose's Luncheonette, so I won't take up your time with this long letter. I just thought you'd like to hear about our old friends.

Come and see me and my husband at our fine brick home in Simpkins Village. We should be back from our next tour sometime in December.

Love,

SANDRA



Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of Auburn High School, Montgomery County, State of Virginia, on this the first day of May, 1962, being of sound mind, realizing that we have many valuable assests which will be coveted by those we leave behind, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our Last Will and Testament.

Junior Class History

We entered the eighth grade class in 1958 with thirty-eight members. Under the leadership of Mrs. Jacqueline Shelton and Mr. Robert Leighton, our sponsors. We learned a great deal about this business of high school life. Many of our friends joined some of the clubs and activities.

In 1959, thirty-two Freshmen were welcomed by Mrs. Florence Meredith and Mrs. Mildred Lucas as homeroom teachers. We were led by our capable class president, Mary Ann McNiel. We were honored when two of our classmates, Carolyn Altizer and Mary Ann McNiel, were chosen for their outstanding scholastic ability.

The next year we were welcomed to the Sophomore Class by Mrs. Florence Meredith. Our enrollment had decreased to twenty-six. During this year we sold "Eagle" banners and had a car wash to raise money for the coming year.

In September, 1961, Mrs. Mary Alma Board welcomed us to our Junior year. We received our class rings and are planning the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. We expect this to be a busy and memorable year.

Sophomore Class History

We began the eighth grade in 1959-60 with sixty-six pupils. We were so large that we were divided into two groups. The boys had as their homeroom teacher Mr. Robert Leighton, and the girls, Mrs. Jacqueline Shelton. It didn't take long for us to become accustomed to high school rules. This was the beginning of our high school years.

With a large class of sixty pupils, we entered our Freshman year. Still divided into two groups, the boys' homeroom teachers were Mr. George Guilliams and Mr. Sherwood Roudabush. The girls' homeroom teacher was Mrs. Florence Meredith.

Freshman Class History

We entered the eighth grade with sixty-six pupils. Our class consisted of students from different schools, also from other states. We became acquainted with the activities and regulations of high school. Many of our classmates joined the clubs offered to eighth graders. Several were placed on the eighth grade basketball squads. Thus, our first year of high school started off happy and prosperous.

We entered the Freshman class in 1961 with sixty pupils. Because we were a large group we were divided into sections. The boys had as their homeroom teacher Mrs. Mildred Lucas, and the girls had as their homeroom teacher Mrs. Annell Winbery. Many of our classmates tried out for basketball and cheerleading. Several members of our class were elected officers of some of the various clubs.

Our previous years at A. H. S. have been successful and we hope to make our future years the same.

Eighth Grade Class History

On September 5, 1961, sixty-three pupils, thirty-four girls and twenty-nine boys, entered the eighth grade of Auburn High School. These pupils came from Bethel, Pilot, and Auburn Elementary Schools. We also had one pupil from Bluefield, West Virginia.

The boys' homeroom was the eighth grade room with Mr. Sammy Joe Lucas as their homeroom teacher. The girls' homeroom was in the library with Mrs. Jane Carper as their teacher.

Everyone was very confused the first few days of school, but we soon became accustomed to high school activities.

We were given S.C.A.Handbooks which helped us become better and more loyal members of Auburn High School.

During the latter part of September we held class elections.

We are happily awaiting our future years at Auburn.

The purpose of the Beta Club is to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among the high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school. The Beta Club seeks to cultivate the ideals of service and proper leadership to prepare the youth of today as leading citizens of tomorrow.

The Beta Club takes part in civic fund raising drives, and encourages students to study and maintain a higher scholastic average.

The qualifications for membership on the part of the student are: (A) worthy character, (B) good mentality, (C) creditable achievement, and (D) commendable attitude.
